GIANTS PAID
DOCTOR'S BILLS

Mike Donlin Was Cared for to the Extent of $242.

CLUB HAS THE RECEIPTS

NEW YORK, January 30.—Rumors that have been circulating the baseball world concerning Mike Donlin were proved to be absolutely false yesterday when Fred Knowles, the secretary of the New York Giants, gave out a detailed statement and showed receipts which proved conclusively that the entire expense of Donlin's accident last summer was borne by the club managers. Donlin broke his ankle during one of the games early in the season, and a few days ago it was stated by a man who professed to know that Donlin complained that his bill for medical attendance had not been paid. Out of this was deduced the story that Donlin was at loggerheads with the club management.

The statement issued by Knowles yesterday showed that a total of $242 had been spent by the New York Club for physicians' services during the season. The sum of $242 was received for by Donlin as part of this. He itemized his expenditures as follows: To Dr. William O. Rau, $124; medical attendance in Cincinnati, $38; medical attendance in New York, $20; making the total $242. Receipts for the full expenditure are now in the possession of Fred Knowles, and will be exhibited to the unbelieving fan on request.

Donlin himself is much perturbed over the reports that he is at loggerheads with the management of the club. The slinger of the Giants maintains that he never was on such good terms with Manager McGraw and the rest of the New York outfit than at present.

"This talk about a difference existing between the New York Club and myself is all 'hot air,'" said Donlin yesterday. "Who wouldn't want to play on the Polo Grounds? Mr. Brush, Johnny McGraw and the rest of the lot have treated me well and I appreciate it, but why do people want to put me wrong?"

"I'll be playing with the Giants the same as usual next summer. I haven't got a same leg. That little break is out, and I'm ready to go. I'm as strong to-day as it was at any time in my career."

Elmer is on hand to hear out Donlin. Donlin plays baseball every day at Elmer's gymnasium, and a man that can play baseball can get out and play basketball. Donlin is a native Irish game one must be as active as in baseball. After each baseball session Donlin comes out and takes a long walk.

Donlin says that after a prolonged session at handball he feels no ill effects. This surely is a good sign, and he wants every one to know that he would sooner play under McGraw than any one else.

NEIL WANTS FIGHT.

California Featherweight Anxious to Meet His Conquerors.

LOS ANGELES, January 30.—Frankie Neil claims the right to fight for the featherweight championship, and says the championship should be decided, and not the result of a decision on points by a referee. He also says that at the end of his fight with Jimmie Harrison, after a hard-fought battle, he was strong and could have gone twenty rounds more if necessary.

"You can say for me that I have a record no other fighter can equal. I can boast of it," says Neil. "Never once in my ring career have I been down for the count, and out of thirty-nine fights, lost two amateur decisions to Eddie Haden, afterwards fighting him to a fifteen-round draw. I lost one to Harry Forbes on an unallowed foul in the Reliance Club, Oakland, afterward knocking him out, once in San Francisco, in two rounds, and again in three rounds in his native city of Chicago. I lost one to Jim Bowker, of England, another champion made by a referee on points at the end of twenty rounds, and I have tried every possible way to have him fight me a return match, even going so far as to dictate his own terms, but he can't see it that way, and like the rest of my opponents, is able to rest on his laurels, which he knows I can take from him should I give him a chance. I would also like to call your attention to the fact that Mr. Bowker consumed a pint of brandy during the last twenty rounds. I lost one to Abe Attell after the contest had gone the limit, twenty rounds. I asked him to sign for a return match the next day, to take place in November. He said he would meet me later, but he had theatrical engagements to attend to then, and he left for Chicago. So much for another champion made by a referee, who goes around packing the McGary belt, which the third man in the ring was kind enough to hand him."

"During my theatrical engagements I have met all the featherweights, and always held them safe. Now, it is rather strange that all these fighters who hold decisions over me refuse to give me a return match."

MORE BALLOON ENTRIES.

Spain Will Send Three Aeronauts for Bennett Cup Race.

NEW YORK, January 30.—Just two days before day, the entries close for the James Gordon Bennett cup race, the international aeronautic cup race, which is to be held at St. Louis on October 10th, a cable message was received yesterday at the headquarters of the Aero Club of America, stating that the Royal Aero Club of Espana will send representatives to compete in the race.

The list of contestants now includes members of the French, English and Spanish clubs.

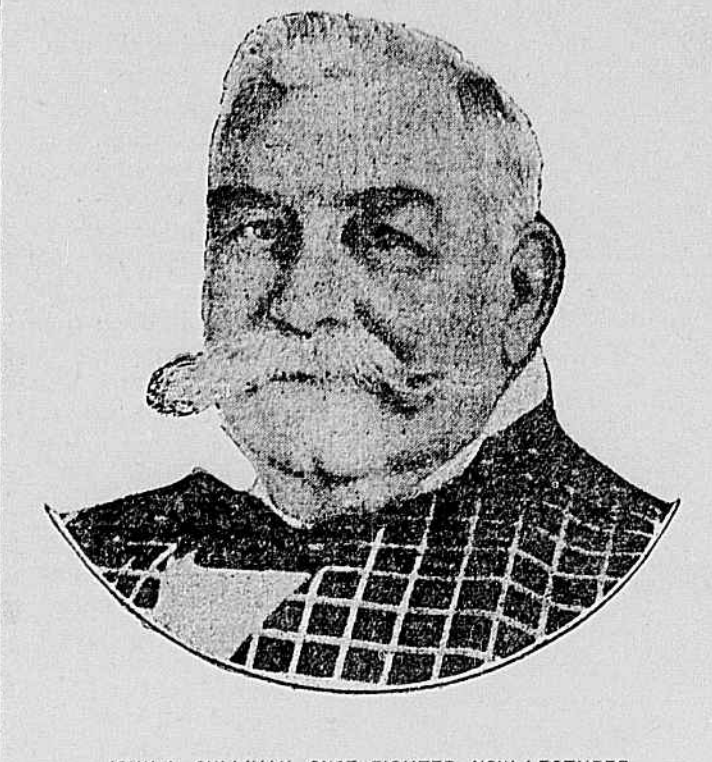

The entries from the Spanish club will be Captain A. Kindelan y Duail, who finished fifth in the Bennett cup race last September in Paris, and who was one of the few contestants to cross the English Channel; Lieutenant Emilio Herrera and Senor E. G. de Salamanca, who finished eighth and twelfth, respectively, in the same race. The names of the French and English contestants have not been announced as yet.

The German, Belgian, Italian and Swiss clubs are eligible to compete in this race, but as yet their entries have not been received. Word had been received by the local Aero Club that the balloons of the foreign competitors will be admitted to this country free of duty for racing purposes.

HARVARD HAS PICKED NO
PROFESSIONAL AS COACH

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., January 30.—Captain Dexter, of the Harvard baseball team, says that neither Willie Keeler nor Bill Donovan will coach the Harvard nine this spring. The rumor has been rife for weeks that both men would put the Crimson nine on to all the tricks of the game.

Captain Dexter refuses to say whether or not there will be any professional coach, which is taken to mean that Paul Coburn will do the work again last year, though last season was not so successful as the students wished.

THE MOST POPULAR
FIGHTER IN AMERICA

JOHN L. SULLIVAN, ONCE FIGHTER, NOW LECTURER.

The idol of light followers and most popular of champions, John L. Sullivan, is drawing crowds all over the country, where he is delivering a short lecture, telling stories and boxing three rounds with his giant sparring partner, Charles Cutler, of Minnesota. Careful living and plenty of exercise in the last year have worked wonders with the veteran, and he now looks in good condition. John L. says he is younger than President Roosevelt, and that they are both still good men, meaning, of course, that they are tough propositions to tackle physically.

ACCIDENT AT MOTOR BOAT
RACES SINK TWO FLYERS

Mrs. Clark's Skirts Cut Loose Just in Time to Save Her
From Going Down—"Dixie" Makes Great Speed.

PALM BEACH, FLA., January 30.—

The feature of to-day's events on Lake Worth, the second of the motor boat regatta, was the sensational performance of the "Dixie," owned by Commodore E. J. Schroeder, of the Motor Boat Club of America.

The second event of the day, a ten-mile race for boats of thirty-foot water line and above, was won by the "Dixie," the scratch boat, in 22 minutes 5 seconds. The second event of the afternoon, in a five-mile event for boats of the same class, was also won by the "Dixie," again scratch boat, in 11 minutes 3 seconds.

The fifteen-mile event, which closed the sport for the day, was marked by the sensational driving of the "Dixie," which gave limit boat a handicap of more than 30 minutes, and yet finished second.

"E. M. FRY" JOINS
PREMIER STAKESHeavily-Played Favorite at One to Two Murders the "Bookies."

NEW ORLEANS, January 30.—"E. M. Fry," a heavily-played favorite, easily won the premier stakes for two-year-olds, the feature of to-day's Fair Grounds card. A heavy rainstorm broke out just as the first race was being run, almost obscuring the horses. Summaries:

First race—five furlongs; selling—Guy Mummering (4 to 1) first, Clifton Boy (6 to 1) second, Simplicity (16 to 1) third. Time, 1:36 3-5.

Second race—six furlongs—Lady Navarro (2 to 5) first, St. Valentine (9 to 1) second, Elfin (12 to 1) third. Time, 1:24.

Fifth race—five furlongs; selling—Knighton (2 to 1) first, Duessa (12 to 1) second, Mains (12 to 1) third. Time, 1:25 2-5.

Sixth race—mile and a sixteenth—Forerunner (3 to 1) first, St. Noel (18 to 5) second, Gladiator (10 to 1) third. Time, 1:53 4-5.

Seventh race—mile and a sixteenth; selling—Mahogany (7 to 1) first, Rita M., (4 to 1) second, Brilliant (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:53 4-5.

Dixie Three Races.

Late to-night the regatta committee announces that Errand Boy and Mera, first and second in the five-mile event, had exceeded the 3 per cent allowance on the time made to-day, which is the basis of the handicapping for to-day. This, with the correction in time made of the few contestants to cross the Dixie, making three consecutive victories to-day, the racer winning every event in which she was entered.

MAJOR LEAGUES HAVE FEW CONFLICTING DATES

CLEVELAND, O., January 30.—The revision of playing schedules of the American League and National League was completed here to-day by Presidents Ban Johnson and Harry Pulliam, of the two leagues, respectively. The conference between the heads of the two organizations was begun yesterday, and it was stated to-night that while it was found impossible to avoid some conflicts in dates in cities where both leagues are represented, the number of conflicts had been so materially reduced that the conference had succeeded in its efforts at harmonizing the schedules.

The representatives of the Ohio and Pennsylvania League met this afternoon, and after wrestling with the apoplexy of Zanesville and Sandusky, O., cities of the league, finally decided to remain an eight-club league. In order to increase the membership to ten, as asked, it was held that the two new members must put up $2,500 to meet

Talks in Happy Vein About the Outlook for Baseball This Season.

WILL CARRY FIVE PITCHERS

Manager Charlie Shaffer arrived in town at 12 o'clock yesterday, and at once repaired to Eighth and Grace Streets, where he will take up his abode, and make his headquarters.

The genial captain of the four bays looked cheerful and happy, and spoke favorably of the outlook for baseball this year. He is in fine condition, and promises to do some good work on the initial bag and to wield the willow with telling effect every time he takes the field. Shaffer is very encouraging in his talk about the prospects for the Lawmakers, and says that he is determined to see that they walk off this time with the pennant.

Captain Shaffer came here, direct from Philadelphia, where he got Cassidy, the pitcher who started out with Roanoke and ended up with the Lawmakers last year, to place his signature to a contract for another good year's work. Mulhill is the only new pitcher signed. Shaffer will carry five pitchers. He now has six on the list, "Colonel" Still, Cassidy, Salve, Long, Eckstone and Mulhill, of whom one will have to go. Of course, who will be the unfortunate one to get the sack will not be known until the team has settled down to work, and Shaffer has definitely decided who will compose the "Merrill" team, and the first game will be with the Lawmakers, the outfielder from Pittsburgh, was also signed by Shaffer when the latter was in the Smoky City.

Mulhill, the new man, is a big fellow, weighing 150 pounds. He played last year with the New York State League, and comes to Shaffer's hands well recommended.

Two Fine Catchers.

The local team will carry only two catchers. Both Cowan and Hinton have been reserved, and Shaffer has signed a new man. One of them will have to go. Both Cowan and Hinton did good work last year, and it will be up to the new man to do some hustling to make either of the others lose out.

Shaffer will be in Richmond now all through the season, and to-day will begin all the work preparatory to opening up the season. All the men will be here on March 15th, and the first game will be with the Montreal Club, March 25th and 26th. Stanley, who pitched for Norfolk last year, is now with the Canadians, and will be in Richmond with them.

The Virginia State League managers and owners will meet in Murphy's next Wednesday night, Jack Grinn, of Lynchburg, will be here on Monday. The meeting will be followed with a supper and a box party at the theatre.

A committee on schedules will be appointed, and after the meeting, everything will be in fair shape for the opening of the season.

The league this year will pay special attention to securing capable men for umpires. Lally, Loffner, and Black were the most successful and popular umpires last year; but only Lally will be back. Hoffman has already been signed by the Eastern League, and will hold a card for them. Shaffer has received about fifty applicants for positions here as umpires, but he has not yet made his choice.

Two of last year's Lawmakers will coach college teams this spring. "Happy" Eckstone will be at Virginia Polytechnic Institute, and Hinton will lend his services to the Richmond College team.

BALL PLAYER WHO WILL LEAD TEAM TO VICTORY

MAY HAVE DUAL MEET.

Mr. J. H. Watkins, manager of the V. P. I. track team, has announced that the Blacksburg Institution will send down a strong team to participate in the intercollegiate events at the Jamestown Exposition. An attempt will be made to arrange a dual meet with Washington and Lee University, and negotiations to that event will soon be commenced.

It is also announced that the University of Michigan will send down a team to represent that institution.

LOTS OF STEEPLECHASING

Some Great Jumpers to Be in Training This Year.

NEW YORK, January 30.—The nominations to the Beacon Steeplechase, one of the Sheephead Bay cross-country fixtures, which closed early this month, show that Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., entertains hopes of bringing his gallant old jumper, Good and Plenty, back to the races this year. The aged gelding is

WOOD BROKE DEADLOCK.

After some further talk in the nature of disclaimers by members of any intention to prevent or retard action, Alderman Wood, the chairman of the committee, called Mr. Mills to the chair and made a statement. He clearly presented the situation, which he said called for some sacrifice on the part of some one. Thereupon he declared that the important matter was to provide an auditorium, and that he would yield his own preferences and accept the plan of the Common Council members in order to bring about agreement.

This broke the deadlock, and the award of the contract to Mr. Chesterton for a building with vestibule annex and wooden benches, at his bid of $14,830, was recommended to the Council.

INTERNATIONAL RACES.

German and American Yachts
Will Contest for Cup in August.

BOSTON, A. ASS., January 30.—The first international contest between German and American yachts in the history of the world will be held next August, when another series of races for the so-called Sander type of boat will be sailed at Kiel for a cup offered by the Emperor.

Arrangements for the races were perfected last night by a series of cables between Rear-Admiral Barandon, of the Imperial Yacht Club, and Henry Howard, chairman of the German-American race committee of the Eastern Yacht Club, of his city. The races will begin on August 1st, and will consist of three races, each of which will be represented by three yachts, which will be selected by the German-American race committee.

The races will be held in the Smoky City. The new man, is a big fellow, weighing 150 pounds. He played last year with the New York State League, and comes to Shaffer's hands well recommended.

McCarthy to the Rescue.

After having voted down every proposition offered, and when disagreement seemed hopeless, Mayor McCarthy was accorded the floor and made one of those direct, clear and incisive statements of the situation for which he is noted, and which clarified the atmosphere and stimulated the committee to action. It was a heart to heart talk, and before he resumed his seat he had said some things that made the committee think.

He declared that he had heard all the proceedings and that he was convinced that there was no question of principle in any way involved. Yet somebody must quit quibbling over technicalities and permit an agreement on one plan or the other.

Unless some plan were agreed to by the committee, acted upon by both branches of the Council and signed by the Mayor, the auditorium would never be built, and the purpose of providing for an auditorium would be dead also. He warned the committee that the people were in earnest in the demand for an auditorium, and that they would certainly hold them to account for failure to provide it.

He declared that he had heard all the proceedings and that he was convinced that there was no question of principle in any way involved. Yet somebody must quit quibbling over technicalities and permit an agreement on one plan or the other.

A Startling Statement.

It was in commenting the site selected for the auditorium that the Mayor made some startling statements. He declared that such an auditorium was imperative for holding high school commencement exercises, and for other reasons. "It would be criminal to allow another commencement to be held in the Academy," said the Mayor with impressive emphasis. In support of the statement he declared that he had trembled when he saw the 1,500 to 1,600 people in that building a year ago, and that he was uneasy until the last one was out.

A few years ago he had visited the Academy, and on inspection found the basement stacked up with old scenery, lumber, oil and other inflammable material, and he had ordered that if this was not all cleared out he would close the place. It was removed, but even then it was a criminal risk to allow that building to be packed to the peanut gallery, with only a narrow wooden stairway as an exit in case of fire or panic. The Mayor reminded the committee that the Episcopal Council, an international body, was also to meet here; that great expenditures and preparations were being made therefore, and that unless a building was provided there would be great inconvenience. He urged upon the committee to quit quibbling and standing on the dignity of their respective bodies and to get together in time.
